

FINES SHERIFF FOR CONTEMPT

Judge Ritchie Emphasizes His Rule That Bailiff Must Be Provided for His Court.

DIDN'T HAVE THE MONEY

MR. EMERY MUST PAY TODAY OR LOCK HIMSELF UP.

Unless Sheriff C. Frank Emery pays $5 into the registry of Judge M. L. Ritchie's court this morning, he will be committed to the county jail, where he has been wont to confine criminals himself. Sheriff Emery was fined for contempt of court by Judge Ritchie yesterday and given until today to pay the fine.

The fine of the sheriff was due to his failure to furnish Judge Ritchie with a bailiff. Late yesterday afternoon Judge Ritchie submitted a case to jury and began the trial of another case. The regular bailiff of the court had been placed in charge of the jury that was out and there was no bailiff in attendance at the new suit.

Several times Judge Ritchie has admonished the sheriff that a bailiff must be in attendance upon his court at all times, and when he found that none was present he determined to impress the sheriff with the necessity of complying with the court's order.

Accordingly he sent for the sheriff, and, after reprimanding him from the bench, assessed the $5 fine, and told the representative of the law's majesty that he must pay it before Saturday night. Sheriff Emery walked out of the court room with a rather abashed air, and for the remainder of the day had to run the gamut of every "josh" around the joint building.

The sheriff did not happen to have enough cash on his person to pay the fine when it was assessed, and his friends may have to come to his rescue today, because $5 is a whole lot of money.

COLVIN WINS HIS SUIT.

Recovers Damages From the Utah Light & Railway Company.

George Colvin was given a verdict for $1 for actual damages and for $325 for punitive and other damages against the Utah Light & Railway company by a jury in Judge Lewis' court yesterday. Several months ago Colvin was put off a car by a conductor on Second South street and then arrested for disorderly conduct. He was confined in jail for twenty-four hours. No complaint was lodged against him and the police released him.

He sued for $2,500 for personal injuries which he alleged were inflicted by the conductor and $2,500 for false arrest. The case has been on trial for several days and the jury consumed only a short time in reaching the verdict.

The company claimed that Colvin was drunk and disorderly on the car, and that his condition was such that it was necessary for the conductor to put him off the car. Colvin claimed that he was sober, that the difficulty grew out of a dispute between himself and the conductor, and that he deported himself as a gentleman.

BOTH LOVE THE CHILD.

Husband and Wife in Divorce Court Fendle Their Offspring.

The divorce case of Florence Goldman against William H. Goldman furnished an example of parent love in Judge Morse's court room yesterday afternoon. The wife accuses her husband of non-support and profligacy, and the case came up on a motion to compel the husband to pay alimony and attorney's fees. When Mrs. Goldman was giving her testimony her husband held their child, less than a year old, and when Mr. Goldman went on the stand later to give testimony, he returned the child to its mother. Judge Morse issued an order directing the plaintiff, who is employed at the new smelter at Garfield, to pay alimony and suit money.

The couple were married in Salt Lake in November, 1899, and have four children. The child who showed that he was a bond of affection between them, was born last July.

GIVEN LARGE VERDICT.

Estate of Joseph B. Harryman Recovers Judgment of $37,250.

A jury in Judge Ritchie's court yesterday rendered a verdict for plaintiff for $37,250 in the case of Frank Harryman, administrator of the estate of Joseph B. Harryman, against the Victor Consolidated Mining company. Harryman died several years ago.

At the time of his death he owned 58,000 shares of stock in the Boss Tweed Mining company, which owned valuable mining properties in Utah county. The complaint alleged that an agent of the defendant company secured this stock, subsequent to Harryman's death, from his widow at a nominal figure by virtue of false pretenses and fraud.

Taking into consideration the value of the stock at the time Harryman died, the jury rendered its verdict. The stock was valued by the jury in a special finding at 85 cents a share.

LOCKETT SENT TO ASYLUM.

Man With Homicidal Mania Is Adjudged Insane in District Court.

Alfred Lockett, the former patient in the state insane asylum, who admitted to Sheriff Emery Thursday afternoon that he was possessed of an irresistible homicidal mania, was committed to the state insane asylum by Judge Armstrong yesterday afternoon. Last Monday Judge Armstrong refused to commit him because he appeared to be rational. That was prior to his confession to the sheriff that he had a mania to kill.

Lockett told Deputy Sheriff Joseph Sharp yesterday that it was immaterial to him who he killed; that his impulse was to buy a gun and kill somebody, regardless of who it was.

Divorces Are Granted.

Judge Morse granted divorces yesterday as follows: Mary E. Penna vs. Emerson H. Penna, desertion; Leonora May Caplinger vs. Robert F. Caplinger, non-support; Mae E. Kern vs. Thomas F. Kern, non-support.

Court Notes.

Susan K. Bryan began a divorce suit against William H. Bryan on the ground of non-support. They were married in Denver May 26, 1895. Bonner X. Smith yesterday filed a petition in the district court asking that he be appointed administrator of the estate of Porter G. Ross, who died recently in Philadelphia. Mr. Smith desires to administer upon certain property which the deceased owned in Salt Lake.

The trial of the case of James Roddy against the Diamond Coal & Coke company for $25,000 for personal injuries commenced before a jury in Judge Ritchie's court yesterday afternoon. Ex-Senator J. L. Rawlins is attorney for the plaintiff, and Richards, Richards & Ferry are attorneys for the company.

The trial of the case of George E. Lyon against Michael Mauss, city marshal of Murray, was commenced before Judge Lewis and a jury yesterday afternoon. Lyon, who was arrested by the marshal for embezzlement several months ago, is suing for $5,000 for malicious prosecution and false imprisonment.

Mayor Ezra Thompson and twenty-five other plaintiffs, owners of property on the alley extending from First South street to Second South street, between Main and State streets, began suit in the district court yesterday against Betsy Anderson to compel her to pay her proportion of the cost of the improvement of the alley amounting to $34.65.

George W. Elkins, a sheepman of Marriott, Utah county, sued yesterday in the federal court. Mr. Elkins was sued by A. R. C. Smith when they dissolved partnership, and judgment was obtained for $325.12 which is the amount of his liabilities. His assets amount to $361, all of which is claimed to be exempt.

Oscar Soderlund, a laborer, whose wife secured a divorce from him a few months ago, was committed to the county jail for contempt of court by Judge Armstrong yesterday. Soderlund failed to pay alimony as directed by the court. When cited for contempt he was fined $5 or given the alternative of serving out the fine in jail at the rate of $1 per day. He chose the jail.

GOVERNOR WANTS A JUDGE

Howell of Ogden Sidesteps the Trial of Charges Against George Halverson.

Governor Cutler is looking for a district judge to try the charges recently made against District Attorney George Halverson of Ogden. The governor received a letter yesterday from Judge J. A. Howell of the Second district asking him to designate a judge to try the case. Judge Howell expressed a desire to be excused from sitting in the action. He did not say that he was prejudiced one way or the other, but he decided that he would like to be relieved of the responsibility.

Governor Cutler sent out his private secretary, N. P. Nelson, on a still hunt for a judge. Nelson interviewed all the Salt Lake judges in turn, and all of them declared that they would be busy on March 3, when the charges against Halverson are set for a hearing. It is probable, therefore, that W. W. Maughn of Logan, judge of the First district, will be called into the case. At a late hour yesterday afternoon Judge Maughn said that he would probably be able to hear the charges.

District Attorney Halverson is accused of failing to prosecute certain alleged criminals in Ogden. The case against him is an outgrowth of the present political feud in Ogden.

IMPORTANT TO GUESSERS IN THE $25.00 CONTEST.

Inasmuch as the increase of subscribers has been more rapid than we could have anticipated, and, since we are nearing the 10,000 mark, it becomes necessary for us to advise all people who contemplate sending in guesses, that the contest will close this evening, March 3rd, at 6 o'clock. No guesses will be received bearing a later date. ROCKY MOUNTAIN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

TOOK LIFE IN ARIZONA.

Frank Davidson, Mining Promoter, Commits Suicide at Silverbell.

A letter was received by Postmaster A. Thomas yesterday asking for information about Frank Davidson, who committed suicide in Silverbell, Ariz., Feb. 3. Accompanying the letter was a receipt of a registered letter sent to Eugene Rocca, bartender at a saloon on East First South street. Rocca was seen last night and said that Davidson was a mining promoter. He never lived in Salt Lake according to Rocca's story, but had visited several of the mining camps through the state. Davidson is a native of Missouri and last night Rocca wired some of Davidson's friends who live in St. Louis to inform them of his death.

CAPTAIN EARL REMOVED

Worked for American Party and Is Considered Good Fire Fighter, but Is Fired.

Captain Michael W. Earl, for twelve years a member of the Salt Lake fire department, has been made the victim of the American party's official ax. His resignation was asked for Wednesday, to take effect immediately, but Captain Earl did not leave the department until yesterday morning.

Fire Chief Charles T. Vall called Captain Earl to his office about noon on Wednesday and handed him a resignation blank.

"You may fill that out and sign it, captain," Chief Vall said. "All right, I will. What's it for, chief—politics?" Captain Earl asked. "No, it's for the good of the service," was the reply, and Captain Earl took a seat at the secretary's desk and signed his name to the paper. He then handed it back to Chief Vall and left the office. Captain Earl was informed that it would take effect the following day.

Captain Earl entered the department as a fireman and worked his way up to the position of captain. He served under three fire chiefs and was considered one of the best fire fighters in the department. During the last three years Chief James Devine was in the department and Captain Earl acted as secretary. When Chief Bywater was appointed he received his old position as captain of the chemical crew.

Captain Earl last year voted the American party ticket. Several times Captain Earl, who favored Devine for chief, expressed himself in regard to the appointments made by the Americans, and it is said that this is the cause of his forced resignation. Chief Vall declined last night to say who would be his successor and refused to talk about any further changes likely to be made in the department.

It is stated that Assistant Chief W. G. Workman is also to be removed in the near future. It is intimated that Evron Crosby, an American worker, will succeed him. Crosby has been a member of the fire department three times and each time after a few months of service was let out. Assistant Chief Workman has worked with the fire department for thirty years and was one of the volunteer firemen.

A PERFECT HAND

How Its Appearance Became Familiar to the Public.

The story of how probably the most perfect feminine hand in America became known to the people is rather interesting.

As the story goes the possessor of the hand was with some friends in a photographer's one day, and while talking, held up a piece of candy. The pose of the hand with its perfect contour and faultless shape attracted the attention of the artist who proposed to photograph it. The result was a beautiful picture kept in the family until one day, after reading a letter from someone inquiring as to who wrote the Postum and Grape-Nuts advertisements, Mr. Postum said to his wife, "We receive so many inquiries of this kind, that it is evident some people are curious to know, suppose we let the advertising department have that picture of your hand to print and name it 'A Perfect Hand.'" Mrs. Postum has assisted him in preparation of some of the most famous advertisements.

There was a natural shrinking from the publicity, but with an agreement that no name would accompany the picture its use was granted. The case was presented in the light of extending a welcoming hand to the friends of Postum and Grape-Nuts, so the picture appeared on the back covers of many of the January and February magazines and became known to millions of people.

Many artists have commented upon it as probably the most perfect hand in the world.

The advertising dept. of the Postum Co. did not seem able to resist the temptation to enlist the curiosity of the public, by refraining from giving the name of the owner when the picture appeared, but stated that the name would be given later in one of the newspaper announcements. This seeking to induce the readers to look for and read the forthcoming advertisements to learn the name of the owner.

This combination of art and commerce, and the multitude of inquiries it furnishes an excellent illustration of the interest the public takes in the personal and family life of large manufacturers whose names become household words through extensive and continuous announcements in newspapers and periodicals.

BABY LEFT AT DAYNES' DOOR

It Was a Rag One and Its Parents Are Not Being Sought For.

H. S. Daynes, No. 16 Emery Holmes, opened the door of his apartments about 8:30 o'clock last night to find that a bundle had been deposited on the door mat. He caught his breath when he saw it. It was a baby, and he even saw it move but dare not touch it. Mr. Daynes called to his wife who came to the door. She was more courageous and picked up the bundle. Mrs. Daynes carried it into the bedroom. Mr. Daynes followed behind closely. The first blanket was torn off and then another one, and still another. After all it was only a rag baby and this fact relieved Mr. Daynes. Somebody tipped down the back stairs. There was a wave of merry laughter came from the other end of the hall and then the joke of the affair was apparent. The guilty parties managed to escape but Mr. and Mrs. Daynes have their suspicions.

SNOWSTORM HAS DEPARTED

Sun Makes Welcome Appearance After Thursday's Blizzard—Fair Today.

The snowstorm which passed over Utah Wednesday is moving eastward. It has left none of its fury, as reports from Denver and many other points tell of snowbound trains, fallen wires and blizzard-swept towns. Telegraph wires are down west of Cheyenne and trains are unable to move on account of the great depth of the snow. The only report received at the local weather bureau yesterday came from Modena. This report announced Modena was in sunshine. The appearance of the sun was welcomed in Salt Lake yesterday. The barometer climbed rapidly during the day, promising fair weather for last night and today. Some snow fell Thursday night.

Fast Mail Made Hours Late.

The blizzard swept over Wyoming tying up traffic and playing havoc with telegraphic service. The overland limited arrived in Ogden at 8:55 o'clock last evening, four hours late. This train crossed Wyoming before the storm had reached its height. The fast mail, carrying the eastern mail, was reported snowbound near Cheyenne. The train was due in Ogden last evening, but was not expected to arrive until some time this morning. The storm did great damage between Lamie and Cheyenne to telegraph wires. Communication was shut off from the latter place yesterday, west or east.

UNION VOTES DOWN STRIKE

Boilermakers Employed in Rio Grande Shops Decide to Continue at Work.

The local boilermakers' union yesterday voted down the proposition for the Rio Grande Western boilermakers to walk out.

The boilermakers employed in the Rio Grande shops in Salt Lake have had a strike under consideration for some time past. The men have been dissatisfied with the present scale of wages in force. Several weeks ago a committee was sent to Denver to make investigations of the railroad company's rolling stock. This was to ascertain the amount of equipment the company has in reserve. The committee returned and reported that the company had enough extra equipment and ready rolling stock on hand to cover six months' operation. When the men learned this they concluded it would be unwise to make demands on the company at this time, as it would be able to continue operation for six months after the men left their benches.

The Rio Grande is now paying the boilermakers 24 cents per hour. These wages are paid to first-class men. Helpers and assistants get from $1 per day up. The men are working nine hours.

GOVERNOR AT GUARD'S HOP

Praises Organization and Gives Place to Colonel Geoghegan, Who Says Nice Things.

Governor John C. Cutler and staff attended the regimental officers and recruits' dance given last night at the armory. Governor Cutler gave a short talk in which he told of the purposes of the national guard.

"The state," he said, "intends to build up an organization which it will be proud of in every way. We are not going to have an army of men in the guard, but what we want is a few companies recruited to their full strength and efficient in every respect."

In conclusion Governor Cutler said it was the duty of every patriotic young man to join the national guard and establish an organization which would surpass any other guard in this section of the country.

Colonel Joseph Geoghegan, who was asked for a speech, said he was sorry he was going to leave the organization for its future local bright and promising.

There were twelve enlistments for the new company which will be organized into company C next week. The members of company D will be transferred to company C, making a full company of infantry. The company staff will be chosen by the governor when it is organized.

About 300 persons attended the dance. Refreshments were served during the evening. The committee in charge consisted of Colonel H. H. Lund, his staff, N. C. Hicks, A. O. Miller, E. B. Pike, H. C. Hicks.

GAMBLERS FORCED TO PAY

City Court Renders Judgment in Favor of Wife, Loser by Husband's Folly.

That a husband has no right to gamble away his wife's money, and that, if he does so, his wife may recover it, was decided by Judge Whitaker in the city court yesterday. The case in question was brought by Mrs. Charlotte Tolman against C. A. Cooks & Co., proprietors of the Occidental saloon, to recover $5 which her husband lost last fall in the place conducted by the defendants. The court found from the evidence that $50 of the money which the husband gambled away belonged to his wife, because she had entrusted it to him to pay certain debts and bills. Judgment was accordingly rendered for $50 in favor of the wife. She was unable to show that the additional $25 which her husband lost at play belonged to her. The couple had been married only a short time when the husband risked his wife's substance at play.
